Edinburgh Geological Society – Excursions 2024

Excursion title:	Stockbridge to Dean Village: A Geological Walk along the Water of Leith
Date & start time:	Wednesday 22 May 2024, 7pm	Finish time:	9pm
Leader(s), organisation:	Beverly Bergman, Lothian & Borders Geoconservation

the role that the Water of Leith played in Edinburgh's industrial, commercial ar cultural heritage, and how this was influenced by the geology. Retrace steps to return to the start point, or take a short walk from the finish point back into town.  Meeting point:  Bridge in Stockbridge Village at the junction of Deanhaugh Street and Saunder Street NT 24627 74541  Transport details:  Limited on-street parking. Lothian buses 24, 29 and 36  Outline of the excursion route:  From Stockbridge Village along the Water of Leith path to Dean Village  Terrain, walking distance, height gain:  Easy walking on tarmac paths. Some steps but optional level access available. Minimal height gain. Total distance c. 2km.  Additional Hazards not included in the EGS Excursion Handbook:  Control measures required to mitigate against any Hazards referred to above:  Hard hats or Hi-viz clothing needed?  No  May dogs be brought on the excursion?  Toilet information:  Public toilets near start point, on Hamilton Place, open until 19:30  Geological map sheet:  EGS leaflet – Stockbridge
Street_NT 24627 74541  Transport details: Limited on-street parking. Lothian buses 24, 29 and 36  Outline of the excursion route: From Stockbridge Village along the Water of Leith path to Dean Village  Terrain, walking distance, height gain: Easy walking on tarmac paths. Some steps but optional level access available. Minimal height gain. Total distance c. 2km.  Additional Hazards not included in the EGS Excursion Handbook:  Control measures required to mitigate against any Hazards referred to above: Hard hats or Hi-viz clothing needed? No May dogs be brought on the excursion? No  Toilet information: Public toilets near start point, on Hamilton Place, open until 19:30  Geological map sheet: EGS leaflet – Stockbridge	Excursion summary:	through the steep rock-cut gorge, examining the bedrock stratigraphy, several dykes, building stones and two historic medicinal wells. The route includes several bridges, each of which has a story to tell. Along the way we will consider the role that the Water of Leith played in Edinburgh's industrial, commercial and cultural heritage, and how this was influenced by the geology. Retrace steps to return to the start point, or take a short walk from the finish point back into
Outline of the excursion route:  From Stockbridge Village along the Water of Leith path to Dean Village  Easy walking on tarmac paths. Some steps but optional level access available. Minimal height gain. Total distance c. 2km.  Additional Hazards not included in the EGS Excursion Handbook:  Control measures required to mitigate against any Hazards referred to above:  Hard hats or Hi-viz clothing needed?  No  May dogs be brought on the excursion?  No  Toilet information:  Public toilets near start point, on Hamilton Place, open until 19:30  Geological map sheet:  EGS leaflet – Stockbridge	Meeting point:	Bridge in Stockbridge Village at the junction of Deanhaugh Street and Saunders Street NT 24627 74541
Terrain, walking distance, height gain:  Easy walking on tarmac paths. Some steps but optional level access available. Minimal height gain. Total distance c. 2km.  Additional Hazards not included in the EGS Excursion Handbook:  Control measures required to mitigate against any Hazards referred to above:  Hard hats or Hi-viz clothing needed?  No  May dogs be brought on the excursion?  Toilet information:  Public toilets near start point, on Hamilton Place, open until 19:30  Geological map sheet:  EGS leaflet – Stockbridge	Transport details:	Limited on-street parking. Lothian buses 24, 29 and 36
Minimal height gain. Total distance c. 2km.  Additional Hazards not included in the EGS Excursion Handbook:  Control measures required to mitigate against any Hazards referred to above:  Hard hats or Hi-viz clothing needed?  No  May dogs be brought on the excursion?  No  Toilet information:  Public toilets near start point, on Hamilton Place, open until 19:30  Geological map sheet:  Edinburgh Sheet 32E  References:  EGS leaflet – Stockbridge	Outline of the excursion route:	From Stockbridge Village along the Water of Leith path to Dean Village
Excursion Handbook:  Control measures required to mitigate against any Hazards referred to above:  Hard hats or Hi-viz clothing needed?  No  May dogs be brought on the excursion?  Toilet information:  Public toilets near start point, on Hamilton Place, open until 19:30  Geological map sheet:  Edinburgh Sheet 32E  References:  EGS leaflet – Stockbridge	Terrain, walking distance, height gain:
against any Hazards referred to above:  Hard hats or Hi-viz clothing needed?  No  May dogs be brought on the excursion?  Toilet information:  Public toilets near start point, on Hamilton Place, open until 19:30  Geological map sheet:  Edinburgh Sheet 32E  References:  EGS leaflet – Stockbridge		N/A
May dogs be brought on the excursion?  No  Toilet information:  Public toilets near start point, on Hamilton Place, open until 19:30  Geological map sheet:  Edinburgh Sheet 32E  References:  EGS leaflet – Stockbridge		N/A
Toilet information:  Public toilets near start point, on Hamilton Place, open until 19:30  Geological map sheet:  Edinburgh Sheet 32E  References:  EGS leaflet – Stockbridge	Hard hats or Hi-viz clothing needed?	No
Geological map sheet: Edinburgh Sheet 32E  References: EGS leaflet – Stockbridge	May dogs be brought on the excursion?	No
References: EGS leaflet – Stockbridge	Toilet information:	Public toilets near start point, on Hamilton Place, open until 19:30
	Geological map sheet:	Edinburgh Sheet 32E
Lothian Geology - an Excursion Guide (Edinburgh Geological Society): City of	References:	EGS leaflet – Stockbridge
Edinburgh Excursion A		Lothian Geology - an Excursion Guide (Edinburgh Geological Society): City of Edinburgh Excursion A
Edinburgh & West Lothian - a landscape fashioned by geology (SNH and BGS)		Edinburgh & West Lothian - a landscape fashioned by geology (SNH and BGS)	